A non-profit organization of Kannada Community in Greater Sacramento

Kannada Sangha of Sacramento (KSS) is an association of Kannadigas from the Greater Sacramento area. KSS has around 250 registered families. KSS organizes various events representing the Indian culture throughout the year, like Ugadi, Sports Day, Rajyothsava etc. It organizes Camping to bring the families together. It also provides an opportunity for local people to watch Kannada movies by screening them in theatres. It supports various community events like India day, Blood Donation etc.

These activities are carried out by volunteers who are interested in serving the society. KSS is organizing the 51st Kannada Rajyothsava and 4th anniversary on 17th of November, 2007 @ Rosemont high school, Sacramento.
