KSS Third Annual Summer Camping:

Imagine a night sky so full of brilliant stars that you can actually point out the constellation to your kids. Marshmallows stuck on sticks, bubbling over a campfire, the chocolaty, gooey-goodness of a real s'more - It's easy to envision the ideal camping experience, but not everyone has actually experienced it. If your best recollection of camping is frozen toes, a deflating mattress or a large rock in the middle of your back, take heart! Camping has changed, and there's something for everyone.

KSS is planning a camping event sometime mid-July, 2009. This will be a one-night-two-day stay in the camp site.

For more information keep checking KSS website at www.sackannadasangha.org

Space is limited. Remember to sign up since reservations will be based on a first come first serve basis. Stay tuned for more details on reserving your spot, but remember to mark your calendars immediately.

Folk concert and a movie of Sant Kabir May 3rd 2009:

A film and a concert by five folk musicians from North India is an introduction to the poetry of the great fifteenth century Indian poet, Kabir. He continues to be a vibrant presence in South Asian music, religion, and society today. Kabir was a provocative and challenging figure who cannot be pinned down by any religious label. He was and continues to be admired by Hindus, Muslims, Sikhs, secularists, and atheists, as well as by followers of the Kabir. A profound mystic to some, a biting social critic to others, a Dalit hero to others, Kabir is all of these things and more.
